A Weekly Update for

June 1-7, 2013

If you have a market sheep, goat or pig, it MUST be weighed in tonight (Thursday, May 30)—No Exceptions: 4-7 pm

Tyler VanCleave 4-H Scholarship Benefit

When: Saturday, June 22, doors open at 5 pm

Where: Deschutes County Fairgrounds, North Sister Building

What: A benefit dinner (under ground BBQ, salads, dessert, etc.) auction (silent and oral), and dance. Money goes to the Tyler VanCleave Memorial Scholarship Foundation and will be used for Beef Animal and potentially other 4-H Scholarships.

How Much: Tickets are $9 per person, regardless of age if you purchase from the website in advance (I strongly encourage you to do this) Go to: www.Tylersfoundation.com $10 at the door and corporate tables are available.

~There will be a No Host bar~

From the foundation's website:

The Tyler VanCleave Memorial Scholarship
Foundation was established in January of 2013.

We lost Tyler and his daughter, Calli, to a tragic car accident on December 14, 2011. Tyler spent all of his school years as a 4-H member raising and showing beef cattle, among many other 4-H projects. His daughter Calli was following in his foot steps and started with sheep.

The Tyler VanCleave Memorial Scholarship
Foundation is put in place to provide a 4-H Breeding Stock Beef Scholarship to a Deschutes County 4-H member each year, beginning in 2013.

And for those who don't know, Tyler was Ralph McNulty's grandson.

On a similar note: I need a club (or two) to serve at this event: 5:30 pm—8:00 pm; Great Community Service and fun too—dinner included. Note, alcohol will be served at the event (not by volunteers)

Last day to enroll for 4-H and still exhibit at the County Fair:
